STANDARD TIME FOR TRANSACTIONS - Western Union Payment Services UK Limited (Japan Branch) ("WU Japan") transfers (funded in cash) can be sent and picked up at most locations of Agents ("Agents") of Western Union Group (including WU Japan) worldwide (collectively, "Western Union"). Regular Transfers are usually available within 10 minutes for pick up by the receiver, subject to hours of operation of the payment location. Delays and other restrictions apply in certain countries.

PAYMENT - Transfers will normally be paid in cash, but some Agents may pay by cheque or a combination of cash and cheque. All Transfers are subject to availability, conditions applicable at the payment location, and may be subject to local taxes and/or service charges. Transfers shall be paid to the person that Agents deem entitled to receive the Transfer after verification of identity through examination of identification documents. Such payment can be made even when the form filled out by the receiver contains errors. Neither Western Union nor its Agents carry out a comparison of the "To Send Money" form against the "To Receive Money" form to verify the address given for the ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING, ETC. - Applicable laws and regulations prohibit money transmitters from doing business with certain ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING, ETC. - Applicable laws and regulations prohibit money transmitters from doing business with certain countries, groups and individuals and guidelines applicable to such laws provide the rules to prevent transactions with anti-social forces. To comply, Western Union is required to screen all transactions against lists of names provided by the governments of the countries and territories in which it does business (if any), including the US Treasury Departments Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the European Council, the Japan Financial Intelligence Center and lists of anti-social forces. If a potential match identified, Western Union may require customers to provide additional identification and other information or documents that it deems necessary. Transactions may thus be declined or delayed. Western Union shall avoid any connection with any anti-social forces

FOREIGN EXCHANGE - transfers will normally be paid in the currency of the destination country (in some countries payment is available in US dollars or other alternate currency). If the currency which the sender presents to an Agent is not the currency to be received by the receiver, all currency is converted at Western Union's then current rate of exchange. The currency will be converted at the time of the transaction and the receiver will receive the foreign currency amount shown on the money transfer application form ("Application"). In a few countries local regulations require the currency to be converted at the time the receiver is paid, in which case the exchange rate noted on the Application is only an estimate and the actual exchange rate will be determined at the time of payment. Western Union calculates its rate of exchange based on commercially available interbank rates plus a margin. Most rates of exchange are adjusted several times daily in line with the relevant closing rate of global financial markets. The exchange rate applied may be less favourable than some publicly reported commercial exchange rates used in transactions between banks and other financial institutions. Any difference between the currency exchange rate applied may be less favourable than some publicly exported commercial exchange rates used in transactions between banks and other financial institutions. Any difference between the currency exchange rate received by us will be kept by Western Union (or, in some instances, its Agents) in addition to the transaction fee. Senders must select the payout currency at the time they send money to countries where multiple payout currencies are available, in which case the transaction fee and the money Western Union (or its Agents) may make additional money when it changes Transfers into a currency selected by the receiver and different from that originally selected by the sender.

If the sender chooses a payment currency different from the destination country national currency, the payment currency the sender chooses may not be available at all payment locations in that country, or may not be available in small denominations to pay all of the Transfer. In such cases, the payment location may pay all or part of the sender's Transfer in national currency. Additional information about fees and exchange rates for specific destination countries can be obtained by calling the number at the bottom of this form.

Western Union offers free SMS notification in some countries to indicate that a Transfer has been collected by the receiver (for sender) or that funds are available for collection (for the receiver). Charges applied by the service provider are the exclusive responsibility of the SMS recipient. Western Union is not responsible for any charges associated with SMS messages. If permitted by applicable law, the SMS will be sent to the sender's and/or the receiver's mobile number provided on the Application. Western Union will send SMS messages to a gateway for delivery, however delivery is the responsibility of third parties, and cannot be guaranteed. Western Union is not responsible for technical malfunctions that occur outside of its proprietary systems

TEST QUESTIONS - Test questions may only be used if the Transfer principal amount does not exceed US$1,000.00 (or local equivalent). Agents must obtain the correct response before payment even if proper identification is presented. Different limits may apply for Transfers to or from certain countries. For certain destinations (principally in Africa), a Test Question is required for all Transfers (regardless of the principal amount) AND the receiver may be required to provide identification. Test Questions are not an additional security feature and cannot be used to time or delay the payment of a Transfer and are prohibited in certain countries.

REFUND AND ADMINISTRATIVE CHARGE - Western Union will refund the principal amount (at the applicable exchange rate described REFUND AND ADMINISTRATIVE CHARGE - Western Union will retund the principal amount (at the applicable exchange rate described herein in effect at the time the refund is made) upon the sender's written request if payment has not been made. The sender must present the receipt with the money transfer control number. This refund process may take up to 3 months depending on the circumstances surrounding the Transfer. Refund of the transaction fee will be made upon the sender's written request if the Transfer is not available to the receiver within a reasonable amount of time, subject to the business hours of, and availability of funds at, the location selected for payment and other conditions, including, without limitation, conditions beyond the control of the Agent, such as regulatory requirements, inclement weather or telecommunications failure. If the Transfer is stopped at the sender's request, transaction fees may not be refunded. To the extent allowed by law, Western Union may deduct an administrative charge from Transfers that are not picked up within one year of the
